

Moran Hires Rachel Roach of Alton to Staff

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Rachel Roach of Alton has joined his staff. Roach will serve as a Constituent Services Representative in Moran's Hays office.

"Rachel is an important addition to our staff, and I am pleased to have her working for the people of the First District," Moran said. "Rachel represents the best of what Kansas has to offer. She has excelled in her professional life, and I am pleased to have her experience and work ethic serving Kansans."

Roach is a 1995 graduate of Osborne High School and graduated with a degree in political science from Kansas State University in 2000. While at KSU, Roach worked for the Athletic Department in the Academic Learning Center.

Prior to joining Moran's office, Roach worked for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), which coordinates efforts to conserve, maintain and improve natural resources and the environment. Before joining the NRCS, Roach worked for the Olathe School District.

"Congressman Moran is an exceptional representative, and I am honored to be a part of his staff," Roach said. "I look forward to serving the 'Big First' Congressional District and helping all Kansans."

As a constituent services representative, Roach will assist Kansans on behalf of Congressman Moran.

Rachel is the daughter of Stanley and Deanna Roach of Alton.
